“ These past 2 years I had come to think of her as a grandmother and I am grateful for the time I spent with her; she was such a kind, gentle woman who truly had a heart of gold and welcomed me with open arms. I will miss our conversations and her smile. I am thankful her grandson introduced me to her and every time I see a garden bloom or a rooster I will remember her. Heaven is blessed to have such an angel. RIP Teresa Pagan
