

Theodore Terpos

June 30, 1939 - March 20, 2024

Theodore Terpos passed away on Wednesday, March 20, 2024 surrounded by his beloved staff from Olivette. Theodore was born on June 30, 1939. At the time they lived in the Balkan peninsula/country of Albania. When he was just six months old, during the start of World War II, his parents moved from their home country to the United States.

What made him happy was enjoying a good cup of tea throughout life. He would enjoy his tea, and many different kinds, chai, green tea, flavored tea. Theodore had many interests in his life. In his youth he loved joining his peers going fishing, going for a swim at the therapeutic pool or watching a movie with friends. He loved going on van rides, they turned out to be the best adventures. Being outside on the deck at his house, sitting in the sun, enjoying the beauty and peacefulness of the outdoors, while listening to his radio was his ideal leisure activity. He loved classic rock. Some of his favorite bands were Pink Floyd, and ACDC. There is an Albanian saying that reads: "Don't ask how someone died, but for the ways he lived. "

Teddy passed away at Columbia Memorial Hospital and was surrounded by staff who knew and loved him. Teddy is survived by his brother Thomas.
