Thomas "Tom" L. Vita

Loving Husband, Father, Step Father, Grandfather and Great Grandfather

Thomas "Tom" L. Vita, of Catskill, NY, born on June 4, 1939, passed into eternal life peacefully on Christmas Eve morning, December 24, 2017, at the age of 78 at St. Peter's Hospital, Albany, New York, surrounded by his loving and devoted wife, Patricia M. (Taranto) Vita and her family.

Survivors include his beloved wife, Patricia (Taranto) Vita, his son, Anthony and his daughters Maria and Madeline. Tom was also a step father to Dawn (Perkowski) Vorraro, William Perkowski Jr., Brooke (Perkowski) Mabb, and Mary Perkowski. He was a loving grandfather of many grandchildren and a great grandfather to two great-grandchildren.

Tom loved fishing, cooking, laughing and poking fun every chance he that he had.

Tom's life will be celebrated with a private ceremony of immediate family.

To honor of Tom's life, cards and expressions of condolences may be sent to P.O. Box 162, South Cairo, New York, 12482.

Arrangements are under the direction of Richards Funeral Home, 29 Bross Street, Cairo, New York.

Condolences and memories may be made at “ Patty, I am very sorry to just hear of your loss... You are in my thoughts and prayers.

As you wrote, "til we meet again," hang in there and live your best life.
You are loved and thought of by many people, even strangers.

“ *I am my father's tuffy...
When we went to the beach he told me to jump high from the waves
He told me to be good
He told me to save my money
He told me to always be happy
I'm glad I found you again and saw you
I'm glad you met my son and my nieces
I was gonna surprise you after the holidays to see u but you went away so you can be around me all the time watching me...now i have to be good...ajajajaj
I love u daddy ..
Now i have to be tougher like you always say im your tuffy..im your baby girl
I'm not saying goodbye ..
I'm saying see ya
Love always your daughter baby girl tuffy
