“ Max gave me my first real job at his dealership when I moved to CT from Maine. When I started I was doing new car preparation, but in a couple of years, with his encouragement, I was installing aftermarket accessories including sunroofs and air conditioners. I learned a lot about the mechanical end of automobiles. He allowed me to use the shop to work on my own car and would check in on me and offer advise. He was always kind, fair and generous with his time. He was also very bright, designing a turbocharger system for Subarus. I will always cherish my employment with him. My deepest condolences to his friends and family.

“ Max I am saddened to hear of your passing. I haven't been up that way for some time. You always stirred up a good conversation, especially when in the presence of Mathias, another lost friend.

“ Rest in Peace Max. Thanks for those long conversations! They will be missed! Loved going to the Texas Roadhouse (Kingston), Mikes Diner (Cairo) and Bobs Diner (Hudson) with Max. It would be a minimum 3 hour outing. Max loved talking about flying, cars, life in general and Germany. Always cared to give us youger guys advice. He will definitely be missed by all!

“ I worked with Max as a bus driver for a few years. He was an excellent co-worker, always a true gentleman. His recollections of his days racing and his experiences working on cars and running his Subaru dealership were always enjoyable. He will be missed by those of us who had the opportunity to work with him and get to know him.

“ To Max’s family we here at Haus Waldeck remember Max as a good neighbor & customer. He often stopped by the bar for some of Inge’s fine meals. Often wondered what became of him. May he rest in piece! Gary Koopman
