*Wayne
I miss you, you were a good husband thru good and bad times but we stuck together. You went thru a lot you had gotten burnt with three degree burns when you were younger you had to start over from the beginning then you got into a car accident that really was bad, you got bit by a bat you had to get fourteen shots down your stomach, bit by a snake a boa, your mom told me you were stubborn but you came out stronger when someone said you couldn't do it you showed them, sometimes you had more pep than me lol. But I will cherish what we had
And till I see again. Love you always your wife Marina*
